

Ways a child can be impacted by hearing loss in the classroom

The student may not be able to hear and follow instructions

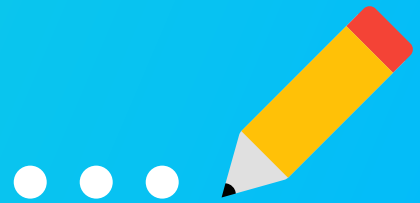

The student may feel isolated in the playground and the classroom

The student may not be able to understand the teacher

They may not be able to work collaboratively to the best of their ability

They may get tired and frustrated, impacting their ability to learn

#ScreenwithSoundScouts

